That was a quick response. I guess what I meant by back up date was my preference for our holiday party was December 7 but if you were not available then I was holding the La Crosse Center for November 30 as another possible date for the holiday party. November 30 is my birthday and I guess there is no better way to celebrate but with Double Take playing for me!

Let's plan on our party being Friday, November 30, with the same set-up, times, etc. as this year. Please send me a contract and let me know the deposit you need and I'll get the check to you. Again, you and your spouses/guests are invited for dinner prior to playing.

Sure glad you're available. I think your the best band in town!

Hi Paul:

Our employees enjoyed your band for our holiday party in 2006 and would like to have you back in 2007. Would you be available on Friday, December 7? Our back up date would be Friday, November 30. Again, it would be in the ballroom of the La Crosse Center.
